

11 1-2 BALES CROP FORECAST

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor

ALEX. H. WASHBURN

The Majority Is Always Right?

But the Majority in France Was Wrong

Another chapter in the history of tragic France — the political trials scheduled to begin this week — is another grim warning to the peoples of the republics still at peace and yet unconquered. The warning is simply this: That government of the people, by the people, and for the people, will stand up only so long as the people recognize that their government, like all other forms of government, is bound by the immutable rules of sound business and fair play. France today is preparing to try eight men for treason.

Old Courthouse at Washington Host to the Candidates

13th Engagement of Tour at Washington Wednesday

CONTINUE DEBATE

Clashes Develop in Both Representative Races

DeAnn, Thursday, August 8
Bing, Friday, August 9
Hope, Monday, August 12

By J. T. BOWDEN JR.

The lawn in front of the old Hempstead county court house in historic Washington was the scene of the thirteenth speaking of the current political stump tour Wednesday. Arch P. Delaney, mayor of Washington, served as chairman of the meeting. Eating concessions were in charge of the Methodist women and Baptist young people. The drinks stand was a private enterprise.

An added attraction was music before and after the speaking, which was presented by the Ceen Brothers Trio of Beaumont, Texas. The boys, all under the teen age, are Paul, violin, Larry, guitar and Charles, Mandolin. The lads are the accomplished sons of Arthur Keel, a Hempstead county boy and the grand-sons of Bob Keel, who was in his early years a prominent figure in county politics. The boys are visiting relatives in Washington.

The Representatives The candidates for the No. 2 post of Hempstead county representatives were the lead off men and were, as has been the case on every other stump in the county, very enthusiastic in their oratory. Both Mr. Weisenberger and Mr. Bearden, the only two candidates in this race, injected new material into their speeches.

Mr. Weisenberger, the first to speak, cited the fact that while he was on active duty with the United States Army at Camp Robinson during the early part of July he was chosen by the commandant of that camp to be the instructor, for the 800 boys gathered there from all over Arkansas, in the subject of Americanism and Citizenship. He said that he held up those ideals before those boys of which we are all proud and condemned foreignism as he had always done on every stand. He closed by saying that he was one man who loved America and the things for which she stands above all things.

Mr. Bearden charged, in closing his talk, that his opponent's campaign was being managed by Louis Carlson a member of the Republican party of Hempstead county. He said that a recent collection Mr. Weisenberger made for Mr. Carlson that he was 25 per cent and that Mr. Weisenberger turned the face back to his client to be applied on the Republican campaign fund.

In his rejoinder Weisenberger stated that there was no room whatsoever to doubt his loyalty to his country and the Democratic party. He cited his vote for the Democratic ticket in previous election and stated that in the general election he would vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt and Henry A. Wallace as the Democratic nominees for president and vice-president respectively.

Feild and Clark
In the afternoon Talbot Feild, Jr.,

(Continued on Page Two)

CRANUM CRACKERS

Some Unusual Plurals
Here are five words whose plurals aren't formed by the simple and customary device of adding an "s" to the singular. Can you supply the plural of each?

1. Matrix.
2. Erratum.
3. Moose.
4. Seraph.
5. Monsieur.

Answers on Comic Page

Election Officers Are to Be Chosen at 10 a. m. Friday

Chairman W. S. Atkins
Summons County
Central Committee

AN OPEN MEETING

Atkins Invites All Candidates to Attend Session

W. S. Atkins, mayor of Hope and chairman of the Hempstead County Democratic Central Committee, announced at the Hope political rally Tuesday night that the committee would meet Friday morning for the purpose of selecting judges and clerks for the coming election August 13. "The most important work in connection with an election," Mr. Atkins stated, "is the selection of good men for judges and clerks at the various precincts."

"The law provides," he continued, "that no man who bets on an election or receives money for working for a candidate can serve as a judge or clerk. Neither any man who is a deputy to an office holder or one related by blood or marriage to a candidate is eligible."

Mr. Atkins stated that the law also provides that a meeting of the select judges and clerks shall be an open meeting and that anyone may attend. The candidate have a right to object to the selection of any judge or clerk who in their opinion would not be fair and impartial.

"As chairman of the Hempstead Democratic Central Committee," he concluded, "and on behalf of the entire committee, invite and request that all candidates be present at the city hall at 10 a. m. Friday, August 13, to aid the committee in selecting the judges and clerks."

And you will read in this column for years our own paraphrase: The majority is always right—except when it is wrong.

The majority in France was wrong—and France was destroyed, a world power now reduced to a small country.

Little sympathy can be wasted on the eight defendants facing sure sentence before a packed court, any more than we waste sympathy on the people of France as a whole.

Because leaders of today who play to the plaudits of the crowd, disregarding what is safe and sound for their country, will reap what they sowed when, the stage collapsing under them, they are finally hauled before the judgment seat.

Huxley, great Englishman, once wrote this paragraph which defines the common problem of Man, whether individually or as a nation:

The chessboard is the world; the pieces are the phenomena of the universe; the rules of the game are what we call the laws of nature. The Player on the other side of the game is hidden from us. We know that His play is always fair, just and patient. But also we know to our cost that He never overlooks a mistake or makes the mildest allowance for ignorance."

(Continued on Page Three)

Wasps paralyze their prey by stinging, and seem to know the vital spots of each type of victim.

Bryson and Mitchell Clash in Nevada State Senatorial Race

Refunding, Free Textbooks and Damage Suits Furnish Ammunition to the Opposing Candidates

BY WAYNE JARVIS

Nevada County candidates held their first double-header speaking date Wednesday. The first speaking was at Sutton at 2 p. m. Oren Harris, congressional candidate, furnished the loud-speaking equipment.

The night speaking was held at Fallon, where the lid was taken off by Edward Bryson and Lawrence Mitchell, candidates for state senator. Each spoke for 30 minutes, and Bryson came back with a five-minute rebuttal, it had been at any previous speaking.

The candidates for sheriff: Ed Cottingham, Curtis Ward, John Jarvis, R. L. Vandiver and Barton Saunders, gave short talks announcing their candidacies. The clerks, Hodie Butler, Buck Young, Brad Dewdney and Jesse Baker, also gave short talks.

Candidates who are running without opposition who spoke are: Treasurer Carl Mitchell, Judge J. C. Wood, Circuit Clerk Coven Waters and Tax assessor Jessie Stockton. Leslie Buchanan, running without opposition for representative also gave a talk and explained some amendments to be voted on in the general election.

Speeches of the candidates for state senator follow:

Edward Bryson:

"I beg to pause on another instance to state the voters of this county are entitled to be told the truth in this campaign. You are entitled to dependable statements backed by the records and cold facts. Two-faced promises and bundles of double-

(Continued on Page Three)

8 Ex-Leaders of France Face Trial as Fascist Government Seeks a Scapegoat

Radical Cabinet Members First to Be Put on Trial

Conservatives of Today to Try Radicals of Yesterday

A FASCIST COURT

Little Mercy Likely to Be Shown in Political Trials

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

With a Nazi-minded French puppet government dancing as the Hitler conquerors pull the strings, the stage is set for a mass trial of prominent French statesmen at the town of Riom. It is a trial before a special high court constructed on the strictest Nazi model, a court from whose decisions there can be no appeal and which will seek scapegoats for the French debacle.

The men to be impaled are three former premiers, Leon Blum, Edouard Daladier and Paul Reynaud; former Chief of Staff of the Army Gustave Gamelin, and former cabinet ministers Cesar Campinchi, Yvon Delbos, Pierre Cot and Guy La Chambre.

From the standpoint of the puppet government, these men are guilty of having taken France into a losing war, although the charge will probably be that they allowed France to go unprepared.

From the standpoint of the Nazi masters, these men are guilty of having resisted the will of the führer. Leftists Are Targets

It is significant that all the accused except the soldier Gamelin are politicians of the Left, while the accusing government is made up of bitter men of the Right. Knives long whetted are now seeking blood.

French politics is and always has been vastly different from American. In Washington, leaders of the Democratic and Republican forces in the House and Senate may verbally in debate tear each other to pieces, but on the outside may be the closest of friends. That's almost unknown in France. Political hats lead to personal hates.

The big rich, the aristocrats, the ultra-conservatives, the playboy royalists, the anti-Semites, the admirers of fascism and Nazism have dreamed of their hour and now it seems to have arrived. Old scores will be paid off. Old enemies will be crucified.

There's Leon Blum, for instance, the first Jewish premier France ever had. His father so loved France that after the war of 1870, rather than live in a German-ruled Alsace, he moved to Paris.

In 1938 Blum accumulated many bitter enemies when he formed the famous "Popular Front"—a combine of the parties of the Left—which captured Parliament and led to his becoming premier. He committed the unforgivable sin tried. Often a cabinet member, he assumed the premiership this year when Daladier fell. He bravely took over a losing war, but things had gone too far.

General Gamelin will probably be the army fall guy for the lost war, just as French generals were in the war of 1870. Only a year ago Gamelin was still being lauded as the man who had been the brilliant chief of staff to Joffre at the Battle of the Marne and as the man who in 1925 squelched a serious rebellion in Syria.

Pierre Cot has been minister for air in four cabinets and Guy La Chambre, who held a like post in three cabinets, will be held responsible for the fact that France was so weak in modern airplanes. Some of the very men who fought big expenditures for the air arm are now in the Petain government.

Cesar Campinchi, a fiery Corsican, had the misfortune to be minister for the navy in the Blum and Daladier cabinet. Delbos is a former minister of foreign affairs.

No date is set for hearing of the motion.

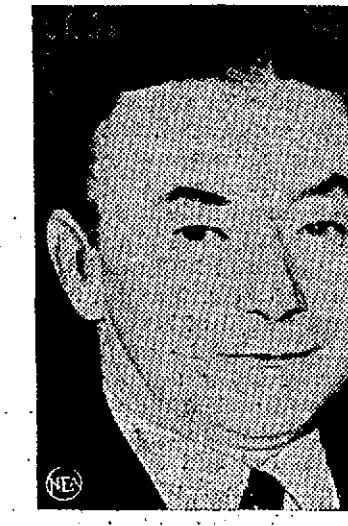

Ed I. Rephan Flies to New York Tuesday

Ed I. Rephan, Hot Springs, proprietor of Rephan's Department store here, flew to New York on an American Airways liner Tuesday, his store staff were informed. He left Little Rock at 10:30 a. m. and was in New York at 9 that night.

(Continued on Page Three)

Leon Blum

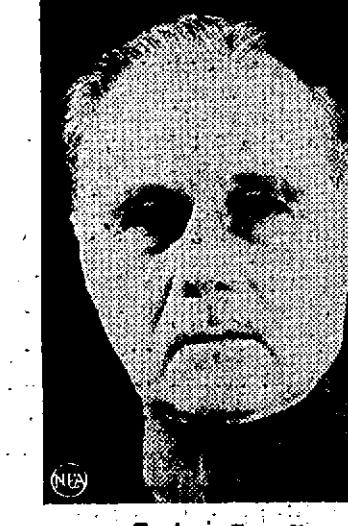

Paul Reynaud

Pierre Cot

Yvon Delbos

Gustave Gamelin

Edouard Daladier

Football Squad to Meet on Monday

Prospects for Winning Team Are Not So Bright

Coaches Foy Hammons and Bill Brasher announced Thursday that all boys interested in playing football this year are asked to meet in the high school gymnasium Monday morning at 7:30.

Mr. Hammons pointed out that prospects for a winning team this year are slim due to the fact that the team will be approximately 20 pounds lighter than last year's and the ages of the boys will be about two years younger. He predicted last year, however, that Hope would win 50 per cent of the games.

The big rich, the aristocrats, the ultra-conservatives, the playboy royalists, the anti-Semites, the admirers of fascism and Nazism have dreamed of their hour and now it seems to have arrived. Old scores will be paid off. Old enemies will be crucified.

The big rich, the aristocrats, the ultra-conservatives, the playboy royalists, the anti-Semites, the admirers of fascism and Nazism have dreamed of their hour and now it seems to have arrived. Old scores will be paid off. Old enemies will be crucified.

At a hearing before the Arkansas Department of Public Utilities in Little Rock August 1 the company agreed to give Hope such data.

The consumers committee authorized Mr. Johnson's trip to Shreveport at meeting here Wednesday afternoon. Committee members attending were: Albert Graves, E. P. Young, Syd McMinn and Alex H. Washburn, the fifth member, State Senator James H. Pilkinton, is in Washington, D. C.

An uninvited guest whose homecoming almost stole the show was Butler Toland, deputy state revenue commissioner who was acquitted in federal court at Fort Smith yesterday following his trial with his superior, State Revenue Commissioner Z. M. McCarroll, and two other defendants on a charge of conspiracy to violate federal liquor laws.

Mr. Toland, a home-town boy in whom Nashville long has taken pride because of his work as a state official, was greeted and congratulated today by hundreds of friends on his return here for a brief rest. He returned to his home in Little Rock last night immediately after the verdict at Fort Smith, and came here today to visit relatives.

At times the crowd which gathered around him on Main street was so large that pedestrian traffic voluntarily detoured around the group of handshakers and well-wishers.

(Continued on Page Three)

"Where you been?"
"Swimming with Joe."
"But he can't swim."
"Not then, he sure can stay under long time!"

Truman Leads for Missouri Senate

7,000 Margin Out of Total of More Than 500,000

LOGS WANTED
GUM AND OAK
Red and Sap Gum, short blocks in round. White and Red Oak and Ash Bolts.

For Prices and Specifications Apply to:
HOPE HEADING COMPANY
Phone 245

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—(P.) United States Senator Harry S. Truman held a lead of nearly 7,000 votes Wednesday night out of more than 500,000 cast in his race with Gov. Lloyd C. Stark for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Unofficial returns from 4,308 of the state's 4,447 precincts, gave:

Truman 261,238
Stark 254,435

The missing rural precincts were scattered through 28 counties, 16 of which showed leads toward the governor. Stark carried outstate Missouri by a fair margin, but a heavy Truman vote in St. Louis and Jackson county (Kansas City), the senator's home, overcame the lead.

To the Voters of Nevada County:-

Thanks for your support four years ago. With three opponents in the race I only lost three city boxes in the county. Due to unavoidable circumstances, it has been necessary for me to devote most of my time to the office. However, you remember that eight years ago, I made a house to house canvass on horseback. Four years ago I canvassed again.

Due to false reports in regard to indefinite camp, I thought it best to obtain my honorable discharge from the Arkansas National Guard, after 16 years service.

I was and am in favor of the Speaking dates.

First, I thought the General Public Expected them.

Second, I knew I could not visit every home in the County.

I promise if elected to enforce the law, collect the taxes without fear or favor, and have the help of capable and efficient deputies.

So why not follow the voters unbroken Custom and elect me your next Sheriff and Collector for Nevada County. You know my record. Am I entitled to this promotion?

Your friend,

John A. "Red" Jarvis

Paid Political Adv.

Angel Food

CAKE
Large 29c
Size 29c

A & P
SOFT TWIST BREAD
1 1 Lb. 10c
1 2 LOAF Sliced 10c

PAN ROLLS
Doz. 5c
Our Own

TEA
1/2 Lb. 19c
Box 19c

Ginger
SNAPS
Lb. 10c
Box 10c

A & P
GRAPE JUICE
Pint 15c Quart 25c
Bottle 15c Bottle 25c

WHITE HOUSE MILK
6 Small Cans 18c 3 Lg. Cans 18c

IONA FLOUR
24 Lb. Sack 59c 48 Lb. Sack 109

MRS. TUCKER'S SHORTENING
4 Lb. Ctn. 39c 8 Lb. Ctn. 75c

CORN FLAKES
Sunny Field
3 Lg. Pkgs. 25c

PACIFIC 2 No. 2 Cans 25c

RED BEANS
Lb. Can 5c
SULTANA
1 Large Box &
2 Lg. P&G SOAP 20c

PEAS
"PACIFIC" 2 No. 2 Cans 25c

OXYDOL
1 Large Box &
2 Lg. P&G SOAP 20c

ANN PAGE
SALAD DRESSING
Pint 15c Quart 25c
Gold Medal

Cream MEAL
24 Lb. Sack 45c
Sack 45c

GRANULATED SUGAR
Paper Sack 10 Lbs. 45c
Cloth Sack 25 $1.15

SPARKLE GELATIN
6 Flavors 3 Pkgs. For 10c
3 Bars 10c

Ann Page
Pork & Beans
Lb. Can 5c

CRYSTAL WHITE OR
P&G SOAP
3 Lbs. 10c

SPAGHETTI
1 Lb. Cans 20c

GRAPES
THOMPSON
SEEDLESS Lb. 5c

LETTUCE
LARGE HEAD 5c

BANANAS 2 Lbs. 9c
252 Size Dozen 17c

CAULIFLOWER
HEAD 17c

ORANGES 366 Size
Dozen 23c

LEMONS
Dozen 23c

CELERY
STALK 9c

FRESH APRICOTS
Pound 10c

FISH
Lb. 17c

SWIFT'S PREMIUM STEAKS
Lb. 35c

SUNNYFIELD HAMS
WHOLE OR HALF
COOKED TENDERIZED PICNICS
Lb. 23c Lb. 19c Lb. 15c

PICNICS
Lb. 15c
FISH
Lb. 17c

LAMB PATTIES
Lb. 25c

PREMIUM VEAL ROAST
Lb. 19c

ARMOUR'S STAR
BEEF ROAST
Lb. 23c
BRANDED SALT BACON
Lb. 12c

SERIAL STORY SUMMER THEATER

BY MILDRED WILLIAMS

COPYRIGHT 1940,
NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Johnny and Jean save the precious antiques from the burning theater. Jean's hands help in removing the squares that owners of the theater folk say is not their responsibility.

Johnny enlists Rex Arnold's help, gets all the help he can. Jean is grateful, promises Johnny the cameo as a wedding present.

Johnny refuses. The cameo is the only prop that has not been returned.

CHAPTER X
THE fact that Jean Reynolds had given him the cameo for Molly made little difference to Johnny that night of the Capetown fire. He wandered through the still streets like a man in a stupor. He didn't want to see Molly, and so he went home to bed instead of meeting her and Masters at the Capetown Inn.

It was noon when he awoke. He went to the mirror and looked at himself. His face was still smudged with soot and his eyebrows were singed. Not a romantic figure, he thought, and tried to arrange in some logical order the events of the night before.

Jean had given him the cameo. He must find Molly and tell her the good news. He tried to imagine the thrill of Molly's kisses in gratitude, but he could only remember Molly and Masters silhouetted against the red glow of the smoldering theater.

Jean had said that Molly was interested in Masters. Was she? Johnny would find out. Then he would know just where he stood with her. Did she love him or the cameo?

At the Blue Whale he ordered breakfast, then telephoned the Meltons' to ask about Jean.

"Jean's a lot better, and you two are heroes. I'm tired of answering the phone and hearing people praise you, too, Johnny Regan, when I know Jean did most of it."

"Still love me to death, don't you, Sue? Well, tell Jean I'm glad she's better."

Johnny bolted his breakfast and went around to 43 Cottage street.

"Miss Travers and Mr. Masters left early this morning for Dennis."

"What's the big idea?" Johnny wanted to say. Then he remembered that Molly couldn't have found him if she had wanted to. He was dead asleep in his garage, and she had never been there. "What time will they be back?"

"Johnny," Jean said, "you don't suppose Molly plans to use my cameo to get something out of Masters?"

"Of course not, silly. Been reading a melodrama?"

She laughed, too, then, and put one hand, bandaged to elephantine size, on his. "I'll miss you, Johnny, after you and Molly are married."

Johnny took the hand in his. He held it tenderly. "I'm going to get your cameo back for you. I haven't seen Molly yet; that's why I haven't it with me now."

He had a pleasant afternoon, lying on the lawn beside Jean's deck chair. It was nearly twilight when he decided to go home.

"Miss Travers isn't back yet," he was told at Molly's boarding house. He decided to wait.

He sat in the porch swing and began a crossword puzzle. How long ago it was that he had first sat here waiting for Molly! He remembered the feverish excitement and enthusiasm with which he anticipated that first date. Love was a fever. "Love was . . ." he had caught himself thinking. Was it possible that the fever was over? How easily he had slipped back into relationship with Jean.

"I'll go get it," she said, and then her hand flew to her throat. "Why, Johnny, Johnny, darling, I can't get it. I left it in the dressing room. I just remembered. It was on Mrs. Lyons' dress, hanging on the rack ready for me to put on."

Molly looked at him. She seemed to be thinking of something.

"I'll go get it," she said, and then her hand flew to her throat. "Why, Johnny, Johnny, darling, I can't get it. I left it in the dressing room. I just remembered. It was on Mrs. Lyons' dress, hanging on the rack ready for me to put on."

She does say this much: "I see no reason why America cannot build up a couture of its own. I know there's designing talent here, and if it is given encouragement, it will develop more and more. Certainly American sports clothes have been the best in the world for years."

But she denies that she intends to stay here.

She will start a lecture tour early in September, and create 20 original designs to carry along to illustrate her talks on "Clothes and the Woman."

It will be interesting to see which has the greater effect on style developments—these 20 original Schiaparelli's, or the hundreds of models that will be turned out by talented, but comparatively anonymous, American designers.

Schiaparelli says that when her tour ends in December, she'll return to Paris. If she does, however, it will not be because she didn't have plenty of inducement to stay.

Manufacturers may declare their devotion to home-talent designers, but the moment this lady from Paris stepped off the clipper you could almost hear them sigh: "Ah! Thank heaven, Schiaparelli will pull us out of this hole."

At least four manufacturers have offered her $5,000 a year for the use of her name on labels. No American designer can make that money without turning a hand. She also has been offered $500 apiece for original designs.

If she goes to Paris, she can establish a permanent—and probably prosperous—business here.

Schiaparelli, of course, scarcely is in a position to speak frankly. After all, her shop is still open in Paris, her fellow designers are working there. Anything she says may be used against her—or her friends.

But fashion history will have to wait while Schiaparelli gathers up a few

His pencil was making little squares on the paper. He was initializing the squares. JRR, he wrote and under that, Jean Reynolds Regan.

• • •

WHEN Masters' green roadster drew up at the curb, Johnny jumped the railing and ran down the walk. Molly was lying back against the cushion. She was more lovely than he remembered her.

Everyone was talking about the fire. Johnny didn't answer them. He dropped on the grass beside Jean and they watched a croquet game.

"What did Molly say when you told her I'd given you the cameo?"

"I went home and went to bed. Slept till noon. Why didn't you tell me you were going?"

Molly shrugged. " Didn't want to interrupt your dreaming. All business."

Masters took a cigarette from a cooed leather case and said: "Beautiful scenery up the Cape. Quaint little town, Dennis. I'm to play there week after next."

"And, Johnny, I . . ."

"Must be going, my dear," Masters interrupted. "Nice day."

He leaned over to start the motor and Johnny opened the door for Molly to get out. But in that brief moment Johnny understood something. Masters and Molly. They might not love each other, but their worlds were the same.

"Did you meet any big producers?" Johnny asked Molly. "I assume that's what you meant by business."

"Not only that, but I have a contract." She dug in her handbag and Johnny looked at it. It was signed by Harry Babbitt, an ingene part for the fall show.

"I'm glad," Johnny said. "And now that all that is settled, I'd like to give the cameo back to Jean."

Molly sat down in the swing and didn't answer.

"I thought it was to be some sort of wedding present for us. And I want to tell you, Johnny, with the contract all signed, maybe we'd better postpone the wedding . . ."

"Just as you like," said Johnny firmly, "but I want to give the cameo back now. I told you last night Jean wouldn't sell it . . ."

Molly looked at him. She seemed to be thinking of something.

"I'll go get it," she said, and then her hand flew to her throat.

"Why, Johnny, Johnny, darling, I can't get it. I left it in the dressing room. I just remembered. It was on Mrs. Lyons' dress, hanging on the rack ready for me to put on."

She does say this much: "I see no reason why America cannot build up a couture of its own. I know there's designing talent here, and if it is given encouragement, it will develop more and more. Certainly American sports clothes have been the best in the world for years."

But she denies that she intends to stay here.

She will start a lecture tour early in September, and create 20 original designs to carry along to illustrate her talks on "Clothes and the Woman."

It will be interesting to see which has the greater effect on style developments—these 20 original Schiaparelli's, or the hundreds of models that will be turned out by talented, but comparatively anonymous, American designers.

Schiaparelli says that when her tour ends in December, she'll return to Paris.

If she does, however, it will not be because she didn't have plenty of inducement to stay.

Manufacturers may declare their devotion to home-talent designers, but the moment this lady from Paris stepped off the clipper you could almost hear them sigh: "Ah! Thank heaven, Schiaparelli will pull us out of this hole."

At least four manufacturers have offered her $5,000 a year for the use of her name on labels. No American designer can make that money without turning a hand. She also has been offered $500 apiece for original designs.

If she goes to Paris, she can establish a permanent—and probably prosperous—business here.

Schiaparelli, of course, scarcely is in a position to speak frankly. After all, her shop is still open in Paris, her fellow designers are working there. Anything she says may be used against her—or her friends.

But fashion history will have to wait while Schiaparelli gathers up a few

SOCIETY

Daisy Dorothy Heard, Editor Telephone 768

Social Calendar

Announcement

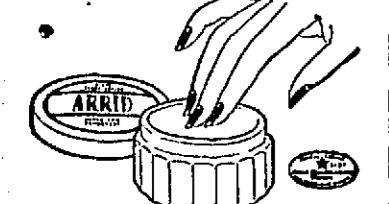

Thursday, August 8th
The Builders Class of the Hope Gospel Tabernacle, business and social meeting, home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Young, 7:30.
"Come As You Were When You Were Invited" dance at the Country Club, hostesses—Miss Nancy Faye Williams, Miss Polly Tolleson, and Miss Joy Ramsey, 8:30 o'clock.

Friday, July 30th

Tuesday Contract Bridge Club, home of Mrs. Roy Allison, 2:30 p.m.
Rotary Club luncheon, the Barlow, at noon.

New Under-arm Cream Deodorant safely

Stops Perspiration

- 1. Does not irritate skin.
- 2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
- 3. Instantly stops perspiration for 1 to 3 days. Removes odor from perspiration.
- 4. A pure, white, greaseless, stainless vanishing cream.
- 5. Arrid has been awarded the Approval Seal of the American Institute of Laundering for being harmless to fabrics.

25 MILLION jars of Arrid have been sold. Try a jar today!

ARRID

39¢ a jar At all stores selling toilet goods (also in 10¢ and 5¢ jars)

The ladies of the First Christian church will serve sandwiches and cold drinks at the political speaking at Oglethorpe school on Monday, August 12th.

Mrs. J. F. Gorin Is

Wednesday Club Hostess

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Wednesday bridge club and one table of guests met at the home of Mrs. J. F. Gorin for their weekly series of bridge games.

The card rooms were attractively decorated with summer flowers in brilliant colors. After the interesting games, scores were counted and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Jim Henry and Mrs. John Guthrie for the club and to Mrs. T. S. McDavitt for the guests.

The hostess served a delicious salad plate with iced tea to the guests and members.

Mrs. Brooks Schults Entertains

Wednesday Contract Bridge Club

The home of Mrs. D. M. Finley formed the setting for the weekly meeting of the Wednesday bridge club, when Mrs. J. Brooks Schults chose to entertain the club.

The attractive card room was made more beautiful with a profusion of summer flowers with pink radiance predominating.

After a number of spirited games, the high score prize was awarded to Mrs. Robert LaGrone.

At the conclusion of the games, the hostess served a delightful plate with iced tea to the club members and one guest, Mrs. Ben Flora of Brinkley.

Little Miss Patsy Weiskie:

Celebrates Third Birthday

Mrs. C. W. Weakley entertained a number of young children on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her little daughter, Patsy, who was celebrating her third birthday.

The guests played numbers of games on the lawn and presented the honoree with a number of attractive gifts.

Among those present were: Billy Rice and William Otis Fort, Janie Sue

Steed, Billy Joe Rogers, Katy Ellen Waterson, Junior Holliman, Wanzel Nix, Willis Gene Burch of Texarkana, Linda Foster, Gale Foster, Judy Moses, Jan Moses, and the following youngsters from Texarkana, Billy Adams, Ruby Cats, Jessie Robinson, Edna Winkle, and Esther Adams. Mrs. C. C. Parker assisted in caring for the young guests, who were served an ice course with cake during the afternoon.

Circle No. Three of the First

Methodist Church Meets

Twenty members were present at the annual picnic meeting of Circle three of the Women's Missionary Society at the Experiment Station on Monday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. John Arnold, the leader, who introduced Mrs. Glen Williams, who was in charge of the program. She chose as her subject "Our Human Heritage" from the Missionary year book.

Mrs. C. V. Nunn Sr., Mrs. Dewey Hendrix, Mrs. Ray McDowell, and Mrs. George Ware had parts on the program, and Mrs. Linus Walker gave the inspiring devotional.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the members enjoyed a bountiful picnic lunch.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Crow Pete Miss Dorothy Martin

As special compliment to Miss Dorothy Martin, who celebrated a birthday Wednesday, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Crow invited a number of friends to their home on Wednesday evening for dancing. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Among those present for the affair were: Miss Mary Kate Tedford, Jack Hendrix, Miss Ethel Franks, Steven Bader, Miss Claudia Antoinette Williams, Ethel Bagley, Jimmy Hendrix Stevens, Miss Marie Antoinette Williams, Miss Mary Walker, Mrs. Cook, Nancy Beller Nolen of McAlester, Oklahoma, and Miss Dorothy Martin.

At the conclusion of the evening, guests were served a salad plate.

Personal Mention

James Harbin has returned to Little Rock after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harbin, and other relatives and friends in the city.

Miss Merle June Webb is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert F. Tucker, and Mr. Tucker in Shreveport this week.

Miss Martha Ellen Johnson of Trumann, Arkansas is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Flossie Hamm. She is a frequent visitor in the city and has a number of friends here.

Mrs. George Brandon, nee Frances Snyder, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kline Snyder, and her grandmother, Mrs. H. F. J. Garrett, and Mrs. George Sandefur.

Miss Maggie Bell and Ike T. Bell had as Monday guests Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Marshal and two children of Little Rock, Miss Mary Bell Marshall of Boston, Mass., who is an instructor in the New England Conservatory of Music, and George Rufin Marshall of Chicago, who is a student in the Chicago College of Music. The group was en route to Arkansas to be but stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought this up because I was chairman of the budget committee in 1939, the only committee provided for by the constitution. I was appointed to that committee after the governor designated John Bradford as his preference for speaker. Bryson cited the federal case of Leonard V. Hubbard II, Fed. supplements, page 145. "They cited that as the federal authority prohibiting the Arkansas legislature from repudiating the state obligations with bondholders in Pennsylvania and other states. Mitchell couldn't understand why the B bonds were made to bear interest in the 1939 bond refunding bill. Bryson explained that the B bonds formed a first mortgage and it was necessary to include these in the new issue to prevent the newly-issued bonds from being a second mortgage or lien. Bryson accused Mitchell of having never read the bill or he would have known that the bill provided for the interest to be left at the present rate. Mitchell attacked Bryson's free text book bill, stating Bryson withdrew the bill when they amended the bill to eliminate the word uniform. Bryson explained that the word uniform was necessary to prevent high school students who transferred from one high school to another from having to buy a new set of high school books."

"When Mitchell went into office the gasoline tax for Arkansas was 5¢. It was 4¢ in Texas, 5¢ in Louisiana, Oklahoma, 4, Missouri 2. Immediately the gasoline tax was raised in Arkansas to 6¢ but it stayed the same in these other states. It was again raised in Arkansas to 6¢, but stayed the same in other states.

"Mitchell picked out a few increases in appropriations but I showed where the total appropriations for 1939 were ten million dollars less than the appropriations for 1937. Mitchell brought

Hope Star

Year of Issue, 1899; Price 15¢; Consisting of 16 pages, 16,000 copies per issue.
Published every week-day afternoon by
C. E. Palmer and A. H. Woodward
in the Star Building, 1224 Main Street,
Hope, Ark.

C. E. PALMER, President
A. H. WOODWARD, Editor and Publisher
(AP) — Morris Associated Press.
(NEA) — Morris Newspapers Enterprise Assn.
Subscriptions: $1.00 a year; 12 issues.
Always Available in Advanced: By city carrier, post week 15¢; per month 35¢; one year $3.50. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

Member of The Associated Press; The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of the publications of The Star, or any other newspaper, in it or in any other newspaper published in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Local Tributes. Star: Charge will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions or memorials, concerning the deceased. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns, providing their readers are given the names of specific memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility or the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

Answer to Cronium Cracker

Questions on Page One.

1. Matrix—matrices.
2. Erratum—errata.
3. Moose—moose.
4. Seraph—seraphim. The word seraphim is sometimes erroneously used as the singular, with seraph-
im being the plural.
5. Monsieur—messieurs.

"Don't you know you'll ruin your stomach by drinking so much?"

"Aw, thash all right: it won't show
with my coat on."

Political Announcements

The Star is authorized to announce the following as candidates subject to the action of the Hempstead County
Democratic primary election, Tuesday
August 13th.

For Congress
OREN HARRIS
WADE KITCHENS

For County Judge
FRED A. LUCK
JOHN L. WILSON
LUTHER F. HIGGISON

For County Treasurer
NEWT PENTECOST
MRS. GLADINE B. MORRIS
CHARLES F. REYNERSON

For Circuit Clerk
CECIL WEAVER
J. P. (Pinkey) BYERS
ELMER BROWN

For Representative
No. 1
TALBOT FIELD, JR.
HUGH D. CLARK

No. 2
JIM BEARDEN
ROYCE WEISENBERGER

He says little on the golf links, but wherever he spits the grass never grows again.

"Aw, thash all right: it won't show
with my coat on."

"CLICK WITH DICK"

It Will be a Landslide

for H. A. "DICK"

EMERSON

Your Next

SECRETARY OF STATE

Endorsed by:

- ★ Ex-Service Men!
- ★ The Farmers!
- ★ Organized Labor!
- ★ Business Men!
- ★ Jeffersonian Democrats!
- ★ and by ALL who believe that
This High Office should be entrusted to

A MAN OF SERIOUS, SOBER CHARACTER

"DICK" EMERSON

Eminently Qualified to be Your Secretary of State

—Paid Political Adv.

Is "Promising Lawrence" Dependable?His Record Proves He Is Not

Mitchell writes that he took a leading part in reducing Auto license fees. Any car or truck owner who is inclined to believe this falsehood should look in Act 11 of 1934, and find that Mitchell voted to raise 1 1/2-ton truck license fees from $18 to $35. He not only raised license but mortgaged the State's right for fifty-three years to make a reduction of such fees.

He admits that he betrayed the car and truck owners for in his two and one-quarter newspaper columns of promises, he writes: "I think that the gasoline tax is too high." When Hempstead County elected Mitchell to the Senate in 1930, the gasoline tax was 5¢; but when Lawrence Mitchell came back, the gasoline tax was 6 1/2¢. He told you in 1930 that he thought taxes were too high, but by his famous "double-crossing," he increased your gasoline tax. This can be found in Act 11 of 1934. The people know Mitchell's record for telling the truth and sticking to his promises.

Lawrence Mitchell had the stupidity to put the following in his extended brag-gadocian announcement: "At the invitation of Governor Futrell in 1934, I, together with three other senators, helped to write the refunding bill." I knew when I read this bit of "puffing" that a shyster who couldn't write a correct announcement did not draft an acceptable refunding bill. But, I wrote Governor Futrell, and following is the former Governor's reply:

Little Rock, Arkansas
June 4, 1940

Dear Mr. Bryson:

The first draft of the refunding bill was prepared by Mr. R. A. Lasley and Mr. Wood for the firm of Thompson, Wood and Hoffman. This bill was considered by several attorneys, to-wit: Marion Wasson, Senator Ashley, A. N. Johnson, Neill A. Bollinger, U. A. Gentry, and Judge Charles of St. Louis. At some state of the discussions of the contents of the bill the following names of lawyers were in consultation upon the provisions of the bill: Charles H. Coleman and Walter L. Pope.

Yours very truly,
Signed: J. M. Futrell

Again, the record proves that Mitchell won't tell the truth. Governor Futrell nor any other governor ever recognized in this egotist "the first letter of legal training" on bond refunding.

Mitchell told a Fourth of July audience at Cale that every person in that audience asked him to get in this race. The people of Cale say that not a man in that locality ever asked Lawrence Mitchell to run for anything. Do the voters believe the citizens of Cale or do they believe Lawrence Mitchell? Again, the acid test of truth proves Mitchell is not dependable.

EDWARD BRYSON

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

CLASSIFIED

COLUMNS OF OPPORTUNITY

"THE MORE YOU TELL THE QUICKER YOU SELL"

You can talk to only one man
Want Ads talk to Thousands
SELL, RENT, BUY OR SWAP

All Want Ads cash in advance. Not taken over the Phone

One time—2c word, minimum 30¢
Six times—3c word, minimum 75¢
One month—18c word, minimum $2.70

Rates are for continuous insertions only

For Sale

SINGLETON'S FRESH ROASTED coffee. 1 pound 10c. 2 1/2 pounds 25c. 5 pounds 50c. 10 pounds $1.00. Sold only by W. P. Singletone, 113 South Elm street, Hope, Ark. Best place in Hope to buy coffee. 17-1mc

FOR SALE OLD NEWSPAPERS 5¢ per bundle. Apply Hope Star. 20-1c

FRESH PEACH ICE CREAM. BIG double dip cones, pints, quarts, gallons. Cole's Ice Cream Stores. 3-1mc

EXTRA GOOD PAIR 30-LB. SCALES. See Middlebrooks Grocery. 7-1mc

PLENTY OF HENS AND BROILERS. Call 745. We deliver. McRae Mill and Feed Co. 12-1mc

NICE CORNER LOT GOOD LOCATION. Near town. Phone 145-W. 7-3tc

30 ACRES OF GOOD MIXED GRASS. Will yield about 1500 bales of hay. 3 miles South of Hope. P. T. Staggs. Phone 608. 5-12tc

BUY ON CREDIT. TIRES, BATTERIES, radios and accessories. Prices and terms to suit your income. Easy Pay Tire Store. S. Walnut street Phone 105. 28-1mc

FURNITURE BARGAINS—NEW AND USED. Highest prices paid for used furniture. Franklin Furn. Co. South Elm. 1-1mc

Salesman Wanted

UNEXPECTED CHANGE MAKES available fine Rawleigh Route in North Miller county. Splendid business secured in this district for 15 years. Exceptional opportunity for right man. Write Rawleigh's Dept. AKH-118-201. Memphis, Tenn. 3tp

MARKET REPORT

Courtesy McRae Mill & Feed Co.

Heavy Hens 10c lb.

Leghorns 9c lb.

Broilers—light 13c lb; heavy 15 lb.

Eggs 11c doz.

Geese 50c—60c each

Ducks 20c—25c each

Fairly Settled

VISTA, Mo. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Graham of Vista celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary upon the farm where they were married, where their 10 children were born, and where they still live.

Notice

WOMAN AND TWO CHILDREN would like to share expenses with someone going to Dallas, Texas. This weekend. See H. H. Higginson, Bowden Store. 7-3tp

FARMERS, SPORTSMEN, ETC. SAVE your fresh meat by using our Freezer-Locker service. We also cure meat the entire year. Home Ice Co. E. 3rd St. MI-11

PERSONS WHO CASHED CHECKS of Hope Feed Co. Monday, July 22nd please notify Wade Warren. 12-1mc

FOR QUALITY MEATS PLUS prompt delivery service. Call 767. We appreciate your business. City Market. 23-1mc

DURING THE HOT DAYS OF AUGUST the Marinello Shop is offering service from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m. Phone 70. 6-3tp

For Rent

HOUSE FOR RENT ON SOUTH Main. Good condition. Rent reasonable. Call 734. 5-3tp

6 ROOM HOUSE, FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED. 406 South Spruce St. 3 room apartment, unfurnished. Magnolia apartment, Mrs. J. E. Schooley. Phone 38-F-1. 5-3tc

5 ROOM HOUSE, REDECORATED. 3 room unfurnished apartment. Private entrance. Water paid and part of gas. Phone 657-W. 8-3tc

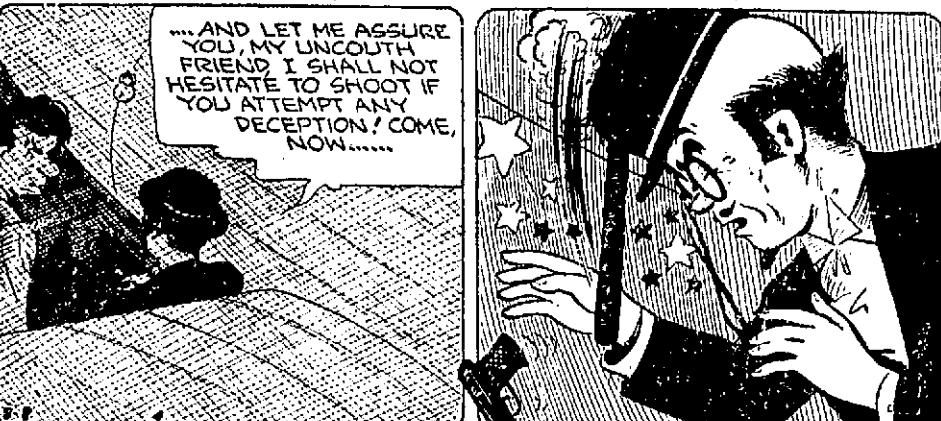

SOUTH BED-ROOM FOR GENTLEMAN. Close in. Phone 318-W. 8-3tp

MY NEW HOME ON PARK DRIVE. All modern conveniences. See Hugo Elkins. Hillards Cafe on East Third street. 6-3tp

NICELY FURNISHED FOUR ROOM apartment. 108 West Ave. D. Mrs. Chamberlain Schooley. 6-3tp

THREE - ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment, newly painted, papered, private bath. Opposite courthouse. Phone 853-W. 6-3tp

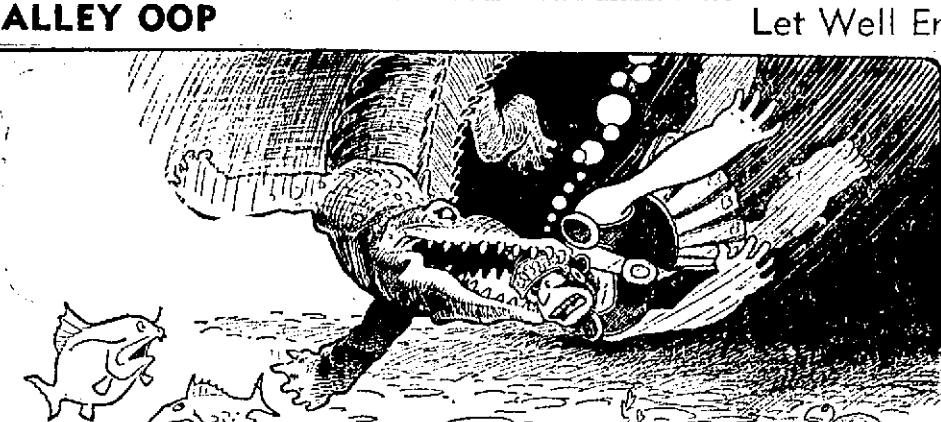

FURNISHED APARTMENT WITH garage. Mrs. W. R. Chandler, 402 South Pine street, Phone 906. 6-3tp

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

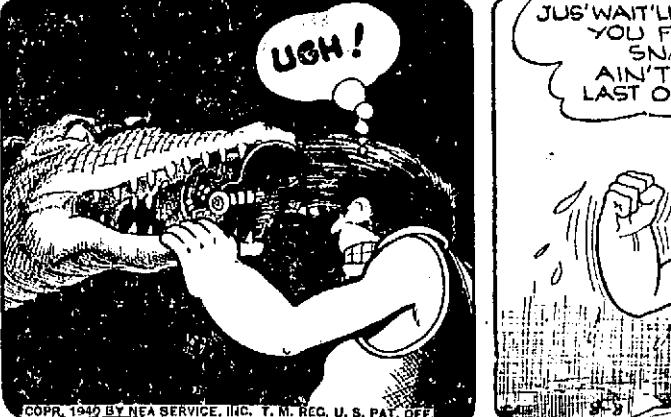

Don't Stand Around

By Edgar Martin

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. Hamlin

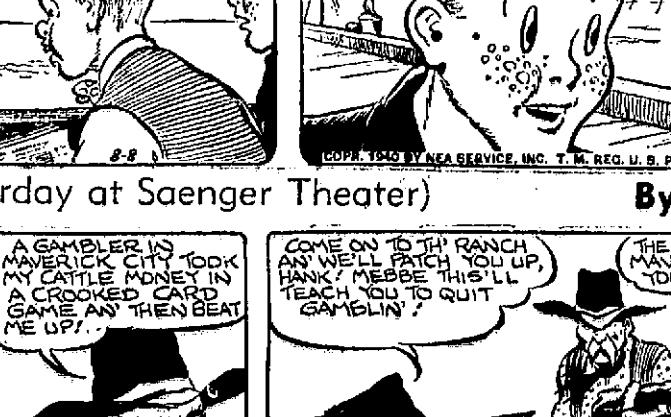

Careful, Easy

By Roy Crane

Trouble in the Offing

By Merrill Blosser

By Fred Harman

RED RYDER A Friend in Need

Serial Every Saturday at Saenger Theater

COMIC STRIP BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

COMIC STRIP BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

COMIC STRIP BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Sherman M. Woodward, chief water control planning engineer for TVA.

"Beginning last August," Woodward said, "we were forced to draw on our reserve until in February of this year the Norris lake was 30 feet below normal level.

"It was the most severe dry period in the weather bureau records.

Engineers who built the dam, however, had allowed a margin for just such an emergency, and when the lake was at its lowest ebb, heavy snows and spring rains gradually began building it up again.

Government Clerks Play the Numbers

All of Them Win When the Mercury Hits 94'

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Government clerks and office workers in all the buildings not air-conditioned are playing the numbers.

The numbers in most departments is always 94, but in the Department of Agriculture, where Secretary Henry A. Wallace's boys have to be scientific about it, it's 84.

The 94 is just plain old degrees Fahrenheit. The 84 is an index figure described as "effective temperature." And when the gong or the mercury hits those numbers, about 25,000 or 30,000 government and district clerks are sent home, to the beaches, to parks, to air-cooled movies or wherever they want to go to find relief from the heat.

Now don't ask me the formula for "effective temperature." It's something the doctors, the heating and ventilating engineers, and the psychologists have worked out and I'm not any of those things. It has something to do with temperature, humidity and air movements.

It measures the punch in a heat wave. One weather bureau official says it is simply an arbitrary index to human feelings about heat and cold. Thomas H. Urdahl, consulting engineer, calls it an index of comfort.

Humidifying

The point is that the Weather Bureau, public health service and the Department of Agriculture are agreed that index-figure 84 is the point beyond which people lose their effectiveness. Which is something I'm going to take up with somebody. The other day that point was reached at 2 p. m. and another day about 2:45.

Just because folks around here get ineffective around 94 degrees, I don't want any of you out in the Nebraska hills or down on the Texas prairies to get any idea that we are sissies.

It's because of something they call humidity. That is, in New York and Philadelphia and Chicago, they call it humidity. Here they call it a lot of other things, none repeatable in a family newspaper.

Washington summer weather is a cross between a Turkish bath and a heat wave on the Sahara. The Turkish bath business is likely to start about the time the mercury reaches the middle 80's and from there on the combination really hits a lick.

By the time the thermometer reaches the middle 90's, heat prostrations average 20 to 30 a day. A pal of mine who feels the same way I do about it calls it humidifying.

Cool Off In New York

People in New York City go to the mountains or the beaches to get away from the heat, but people here go to New York City to get away from Washington . . . and if they behave themselves, they come back as fresh as if they had been vacationing with Wendell L. Willkie in "cool Colorado."

As far as I can see, the capital's summer climate has only one benefit. It does cut down on one's smoking. It gets so it takes too much energy to reach for a cigarette.

Now you can see why government officials worry about things like "effective temperature" and why the boys and girls in the government service spend a lot of time these days watching the numbers.

If congress stays on the job this summer and the summer finishes as it started, I'd be in favor of giving the ins a vote of confidence. I'll take a couple of winters at those salaries for them to recuperate.

Secretary Hull Receives Praise

General Comment in Washington Praises His Work

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Capitol talk: In recent weeks, no man has so covered himself with what passes for success in diplomacy as Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

When the conference was called, the capital was full of skepticism. These Pan-American conferences always had been sessions of sound and fury signifying nothing much and this, everyone said, was going to be just another one. The economic situation was too full of antagonistic selfish interests. As for the Monroe Doctrine, that always had been the United States' own baby.

A United Front

That's the way talk ran around here before the assemblage of the delegates of the 21 American nations at Havana. Secretary Hull arrived on the scene and went to work.

One of the men who was at the conference said "No man worked harder than he. No man was more patient, more tolerant, more deeply solicitous of the wishes and views and attitudes of the other delegations and be it said also that no man enjoyed more esteem."

Those are attributes of statesmanship and with those attributes Hull molded the conference into a united front.

True it is that Argentina is a little cool to the whole business and its congress may not ratify that "act of Havana," but that does not keep official Washington from showering Hull with such phrases as "the crowning achievement of your long and illustrious career."

Paring Budgets

The talk continues to circulate about Wendell L. Willkie and President Roosevelt getting together for conferences on vital matters in the foreign situation. But hard-headed politicians argue that the Republicans would be against it because it would shoot holes in their campaign contention that the President is leading us into war. The Democrats would be against it because they are taking all the responsibility for our foreign policy

Reid Political Adv.

Fortune Hunters Just Can't Wait

AP Feature Service

SAN FRANCISCO—New legends of buried treasure, to stir the imagination of adventurers for centuries to come, may be in the making during the present war.

History shows that when nations are invaded, an immense amount of gold, silver and jewelry goes into hiding. Even entire national treasures have disappeared. Some of them—such as the hoards of Darius Codomanus the Persian and Oom Paul Kruger the Boer—are still objects of search.

What is happening in Europe today is shown by the story of how the fugitive Norwegian government hid its gold in the mountains, then smuggled $13,000,000 of it to the seacoast on children's sleds, and shipped it to the United States.

Individuals, too, doubtless have taken desperate measures to save their tangible wealth—and you can be sure there should be no question of shriving the credit, if any.

In other words, if the political observers are right, you can look for no further coalition or united front from either of the parties until after November, if then.

With all the billions being spent by the government here now, there's scarcely a department that isn't sweating over economies. At the insistence of the President and the budget director, they are cutting from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000 off current expenses.

What's worrying the rank and file of government workers is whether salary cut will get into the economy drive too. The President says not if he can help it.

Le Petit Dauphinois of Grenoble, leading provincial newspaper of the French Alps, had more foreign news than most other French papers because it was close to Switzerland. Even so its dispatches began like this:

"BERN—A dispatch from Budapest reports that a Rumanian newspaper hears, according to news from Berlin, that . . ."

"BERN—The Swiss radio announces that the Swiss Telegraphic Agency learns from its Rome correspondent that it is reported from Belgrade that an official spokesman told the press that Yugoslavia, which has no obligations toward Rumania regards the situation (the Soviet-Bessarabian grab) as an observer."

Music Hath Charm?

CINCINNATI, C. (AP)—Because Susie, the zoo's gorilla, is allergic to opera with her meals, there is a standing rule that the Cincinnati summer opera, which is presented in the zoological gardens, must not even practice at Susie's meal time.

Third-Hand News Seeps Into France

GRENOBLE, France—(AP)—News took roundabout ways to reach newspapers in the unoccupied regions of France following the collapse of resistance.

Le Petit Dauphinois of Grenoble,

WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER MOROLINE RELIEVES SUNBURN WHITE PETROLEUM JELLY

Continuing Our CLEARANCE SALE

with another and final markdown

on ALL SUMMER DRESSES

FINAL REDUCTION PRICES

Group I . . . $1.00 Group II . . . $2.00

Values to $3.95 Values to $5.95

Group III . . . $3.00 Group IV . . . $4.00

Values to $7.95 Values to $12.95

Fashion Shop

108 South Main

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say kidney trouble is filled with tiny tubes or filters which keep the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent night passes with aching and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better. When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

When doctor of kidney function permits necessary time to pass, you'll feel better.

Carlisle Will Aid Emerson Campaign

Forrest City Man Appointed to Aid Cornelius

The headquarters of H. A. "Dick" Emerson announces the appointment

TO CHECK
MALARIA
IN 7 DAYS
take 666
LIQUID OR TABLETS

WE BELIEVE IN PREPAREDNESS

We believe in insurance against the hazards that threaten our belongings.
We believe in analysis of the insurance needs of those who look to us for insurance counsel.
We believe in preparedness for National Defense.
We believe in Preparedness.

Phone 810
ROY ANDERSON & CO.

CHARLES A. HAYNES CO.

Cotton Dress Clearance

in

Two Price Ranges

$1.59
Regular $1.98

98c
Regular $1.49

A complete assortment of summer close out specials in Searsucker plaids and stripes, bastite in floral patterns and dotted Swiss in solid colors.

A group of sheer batiste and voile in floral patterns. A complete range of styles and sizes.

Attention Men! Here Are Our Reduced Prices on Summer Merchandise

Slack Suits

In tropical worsted and gabardines, blues, green and tan. A value you can't pass up. $1.95 value.

SLACKS

In spun rayon, pleated front with zipper. Solid Blue, green and blue stripes. $3.98 value.

PAJAMAS

Pongee $1.39 light summer sleepers, very durable and the hot thing to cool off these hot nights.

98c

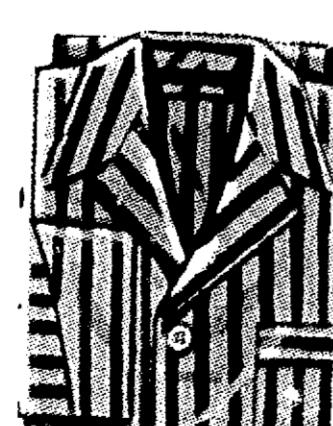

WASH PANTS

These are in Wellington fabric materials, Santorized shrunk in all colors. Regular $1.69 value.

98c

$3.59

$2.98

REDUCED PRICES ON SUMMER FOOTWEAR

Women's Wedge Heel

SANDALS

Women's White Buck Sandals with contrasting stripe heels in Blue or Brown, narrow or wide widths.

$4.00 VALUES REDUCED TO $2.99

Men's Ventilated

SPORT OXFORDS

Men's White Buck, with Tan trim. Vamps perforated for real comfort.

$4.00 VALUES REDUCED TO $2.99

Charles A. Haynes Co.

of Raoul Carlisle, Forrest City News man, as Assistant Campaign Manager in Mr. Emerson's candidacy for Secretary of State. Mr. Carlisle is well-known throughout the state as a prominent sports columnist, radio announcer, and master of ceremonies. At the present time, he is connected with the Forrest City "Daily Times-Herald," East Arkansas' oldest daily newspaper.

Mr. Carlisle will serve in an advisory capacity along with "Dick" Emerson and Terrell Cornelius, Emerson's campaign manager. Carlisle met with other Emerson managers and statewide "county-contact" men at Headquarters in the Marion Hotel Sunday.

At this time, Mr. Emerson reports favorable reception during his recent state personal tour. Headquarters sources term "the prospects" "most reassuring."

"I am rather amused," said Mr. Emerson to the inquiring reporter.

when I notice 'accomplishments' claimed by the present incumbent in the Secretary of State's office. For instance, the present incumbent claims that he is carrying forward an extensive land-scaping program on the capitol grounds."

"Just how can anyone be carrying a project forward when nothing at all has been done on it during 1940? Perhaps work has been stopped so as to enable the present incumbent to ask for 'two more years to complete the job.' Then again, it may be that the two-year appropriation was used up in one year. Surely, that couldn't be possible with such an efficient manager in charge. At any rate, nothing is 'being carried forward.'

And here is the most amusing claim of all: that he has conducted his office with the maximum of efficiency, courtesy and thoroughness.

"Would you call it courtesy and thoughtfulness to distribute 50,000 copies of the 'Arkansas' song at state expense (printing cost, $628.55; Voucher No. 1134) 'compliments of C. G. Hall' without paying the lady who composed it for the use of the copyright? (Suit now pending.)

"Would you call it efficiency (certainly not economy) to order rose bushes at $2.50 each, (Voucher No. 1080) and put in $122.40 tulip beds (Voucher No. 920) without competitive bid and no itemized statement attached?"

"Dick" Emerson favors Strict Economy in the office of Secretary of State. "This is no time to lavish public funds on $2.50 roses and the proposed artificial lake," he declared.

Little Rock Goes Nearer the Cellar

Travelers Lose Double header to Nashville
4-3, 3-1

The leading Nashville Vols again had the difference and defeated the Travelers, 4 to 3 and 3 to 1, in a double header at Travelers Field Wednesday night. It was the tenth straight loss for the Little Rocks who dug deeper into the league cellar.

Behind the eight-bit but slightly wild pitching of Johnny Sain, Arkansas boy from Havana, the Vols scored the winning run in the fifth inning. Moser's triple and Rocco's single accounted for the marker. Hank Harris, who went the distance for the Travelers, was rapped for 13 hits.

Nashville broke a scoreless deadlock to score three runs on two hits off Prendergast in the fifth to clinch the second game. Little Rock got the tying run on base in the seventh. Tony Lupin tripled off the distant "Rose Bud" sign and scored on Hal Siefing's single. Siefing reached on Irwin's infield hit and that was all. Leo Twardy was the Vol winner.

End Series Tonight

The clubs end the series at 8:15 tonight with Wilfrid LeFebvre scheduled to pitch against Boots Potzberger. The coupon in the "Ladies Day" book will be honored for admission.

THE STANDINGS

Southern Association

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Nashville	70	39	.642
Atlanta	69	47	.595
Memphis	64	48	.571
Chattanooga	59	54	.522
New Orleans	51	61	.455
Birmingham	51	61	.455
Knoxville	43	69	.387
Little Rock	41	60	.373

Wednesday's Results

Nashville 4-3, Little Rock 3-1.
Knoxville 5-0, Memphis 3-1.
Birmingham 8, Atlanta 5.
Chattanooga-New Orleans, double-header, rain.

Games Thursday

Nashville at Little Rock.
Atlanta at Birmingham.
Chattanooga at New Orleans.
Knoxville at Memphis.

Only games scheduled.

National League

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	45	57	.441
Detroit	63	41	.606
Cleveland	62	41	.602
New York	51	44	.537
Pittsburgh	49	48	.503
Chicago	53	50	.515
Cincinnati	63	34	.649
Brooklyn	59	40	.596
Chicago at Cincinnati.
Pittsburgh 10-12, St. Louis 9-6.

American League

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago 5, Cincinnati 3.
Boston 6, Philadelphia 3.
Games Thursday

Wednesday's Results

Boston 10-3, New York 7-6.
Detroit 7, St. Louis 5.
Cleveland 9, Chicago 3.
Philadelphia-Washington, rain.

Games Thursday

Cleveland at St. Louis.
New York at Boston.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Only games scheduled.

Rothschild House Falls With Paris

Europes Financial Overlords Eclipse By Hitler

By MILTON BRONNER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
All that remains today of the once-mighty House of Rothschild is two comparatively poor refugees in the United States and the still-powerful British branch of the family.

Once financial overlords of all Europe, able to lend money or deny it to kings and empires, the Rothschilds have been eclipsed by Hitler.

All wealth and estates of the French branch of the family have been confiscated by the Petain-Laval assist government. The same branch is being denounced daily by the French radio in a newly begun anti-Jewish campaign.

Baron Edward Rothchild, head of the Paris firm, and Baron Alphonse Rothchild, head of the Vienna branch, are both fugitives in America, possibly planning to found an American branch of the Rothschild interests on whatever jewels, money and securities they were able to save when Hitler drove them forth.

Red Shield-Rothschild
The full of the House of Rothschild, except for the British branch, complete. The family fortunes rose more than 100 years ago from one Mayer Anselm, born in 1743 in a Frankfort ghetto, son of a Jewish merchant. The house had as a sign a red shield, and from this came the name Anselm started a money-exchange Rothschild, German for "red shield," business and developed a reputation for honesty and trustworthiness.

Mayer Anselm became rich and took into the business his five sons.

Anselm 2nd remained in Frankfort and carried on the business there, which was finally wound up in 1901. Salomon established the Vienna house, Nathan the English, Karl the Neopolitan, Jacob the French.

In all undertakings the brothers collaborated. They financed railways and industrial undertakings, became bankers for kings and nations. Their joint wealth was once estimated at two billion dollars.

Nathan was the founder of the English branch. Lionel, his son, was four times elected to Parliament, refusing each time to take his seat until the oath was changed to omit its basis "on the true faith of a Christian."

His son Nathan was the first Jew to become an English peer, and it was he who advanced four million pounds to Disraeli to buy from the Khedive of Egypt the controlling shares in the Suez Canal. Today that control is a vital factor in the British Empire war effort.

Refugees May Try Comeback

At the beginning of this century only the Vienna, Paris, and London houses remained. The Vienna house failed, even before Hitler's advent, when the Rothschilds put up money to cut the losses to depositors in the rash of another big bank. When the Nazis entered Vienna, Baron Louis Rothschild was taken prisoner and held for ransom.

END SERIES TONIGHT

The clubs end the series at 8:15 tonight with Wilfrid LeFebvre scheduled to pitch against Boots Potzberger. The coupon in the "Ladies Day" book will be honored for admission.

Grandpa Was a Man Who Took His Time

DENVER—(UPI)—Forty-five years ago John O. Yeiser of Omaha was a guest at a Denver hotel and walked away with the key in his pocket. Recently his grandson, John O. Yeiser, III, registered at the hotel and returned the key.

"Grandfather's been meaning to mail it back for a long time but never got around to it," said John.

New York's mayor, F. H. LaGuardia, has had 13 official residences since he took office.

AS COOL AS A CASHIER

A cashier has to be a cool bird. That's business. And it's our business to make HANES broadcloth Shorts that won't cut at the crotch or bind at the seat. They keep you comfortable and cool. Legs are not skimpy. Lastex web in the waistband. Smart new patterns and colors—all guaranteed fast.

WEAR A HANES Undershirt, too, and stay cooler all over. See your HANES Dealer today.

HANES SHIRTS AND BROADCLOTH SHORTS

35¢, 3 for $1

HANES CROTCH-GUARD SPORTS

35¢ and 50¢

P. H. HANES KNITTING COMPANY

Winston-Salem, N. C.

if it's HANES!

WE HAVE IT!

TALBOT'S

Now in Progress

Clearance

SALE